We acknowledge that this application to the SUPr Program does not guarantee us a place.

We acknowledge, that if accepted into the Program, the student whose name is recorded in this form as the Applicant is committing to extended school days, a heavier work load than would otherwise be expected of a student of similar age and has a sincere ambition to pursue their academic studies at university once they complete their high school studies and that to the best of our knowledge, the Applicant is making this commitment freely and of their own will.

We acknowledge that a decision to offer a place in the SUPr Program is at the total and final discretion of the Principal of The Kooralbyn International School and that the school is not legally permitted to make ANY guarantee regarding the OP result or academic result likely to be achieved by the Applicant at the completion of their high school studies.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY AND RETENTION OF A PLACE IN T.K.I.S.' SUPr PROGRAM::

- Students are to attend all prescribed classes, workshops, tutorials, excursion sessions, etc, throughout the year.
- Students are expected to obtain levels of academic improvement and development.
- The student and the signatories of this application accept all rules and regulations of The Kooralbyn International School as they pertain to student behaviour, attitude and work expectations.
- The SUPr Program incurs substantial costs and require considerable planning and commitment from all staff. For this reason, Tuition and SUPr Excursion fees are payable in advance on an annual (or percentage of remaining year) basis.
- The Principal (or the Principal's nominee) reserves the right to discipline, suspend or expel any student from the school or the SUPr Program whose attitude or behaviour is not conducive to the school's welfare.
- A student's enrolment may be cancelled if the relevant fees have not been paid by the due date, unless arrangements have been made with the Principal regarding late payment.
